

Penton

Make your shop #1

SITE SEARCH:

 Search

Search results

56 items found containing "charge"

No. Description

- | No. | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Date     | Relevance |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-----------|
| 1.  | Erode and grind on one machineThe new Helitronic Power + double-spindle grinder and discharge grinding (EDG) machine, lets users switch between carbide and HSS tools to other synthetic-diamond tools.                                                                                                                                                      | 08/26/02 | 3.75      |
| 2.  | Removes liquid from metal                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 02/01/03 | 2.89      |
| 3.  | No electricity neededThe Air-Over-Oil press-marshing smooth, quiet operation without requirements.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 12/01/02 | 2.60      |
| 4.  | New EDM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 04/01/03 | 2.44      |
| 5.  | Learning to let goEven with the best fluid-management procedures, water-based metalworking fluids will not last forever.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 02/01/03 | 2.39      |
| 6.  | Pollution insurance claim denied                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 08/01/03 | 2.34      |
| 7.  | High-productivity HMC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 12/01/01 | 2.15      |
| 8.  | Group promotes motor planningSiemens Energy & Automation, A.O. Smith Electrical Products Co., and TECO-Westinghouse Motors now sponsor the Motor Decisions Matter (MDA) campaign.                                                                                                                                                                            | 04/28/03 | 2.00      |
| 9.  | Worker worries                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 08/01/03 | 1.83      |
| 10. | Electroindustry confidence index outThe National Electrical Manufacturers Association (NEMA), Rosslyn, Va., has released its November Electroindustry Business Confidence Index. The index, which surveys senior managers at NEMA member companies, gauges the business confidence of the electroindustry in Asia, Europe, North America, and Latin America. | 12/06/02 | 1.81      |

SEARCH for "electrical discharge" in American Machinist's archive

Alternatives to offshoring
Click here to learn more